How GO 4 Schools is different

GO 4 Schools integrates seamlessly with your chosen MIS, allowing data from Early Years through to Sixth Form to be recorded, analysed, and understood in one joined-up system.

The platform offers complete flexibility and transparency: work with summative data imported from your MIS, or unlock deeper insights by adding the GO 4 Schools markbook for powerful, real-time assessment analysis. This enables teachers and subject leaders to evaluate performance, review curriculum impact, and adapt teaching approaches quickly and confidently.

Additional MIS data—including attendance, behaviour, and timetable information—feeds directly into GO 4 Schools, giving a full 360-degree view of every student. With inclusive student access, learners can engage with their own progress, reflect on achievements, and set clear aspirations for improvement.

A comprehensive suite of analysis tools allows schools to track progress using residual schemes, monitor distance to target, or measure steps of improvement from a baseline. Attainment and curriculum outcomes can be reviewed over time, with quick data snapshots ensuring no subject or cohort is overlooked. Built-in scatter charts and pivot-style comparative tables allow staff to analyse target grades, current working levels, predictions, and mock outcomes—providing a complete, at-a-glance understanding of performance across the school.

Work smarter with joined-up data

- English schools can instantly view Key performance measures such as Attainment 8 and L3VA using today's data as well as reviewing additional courses such as first language GCSE results.
- Track progress and residuals using projected and/or working grades and measure progress from external SATS scores and/or TAs.
- Monitor gaps by analysing cohort, subject and teaching group data using built-in focus groups such as Pupil Premium.
- Define your own custom focus groups for analysis and staff information, such as "English intervention students"
- Help your staff plan effective lessons and maximise your return on investment by supplementing student demographics with focus groups and external test results such as CAT scores and Reading Ages in markbook popouts.
- Quickly produce progress reports and instantly take snapshots of summary data as often as you need to compare "then" and "now" to monitor the effectiveness of your interventions.
- View transition matrices, flight paths and interactive scatter plots and charts to monitor progress.
- Use flexible 'explorers' to build customised views of data: sort and filter them and produce instant, printable student postcards for your war room.
- Student timetables, demographic data, focus groups such as Pupil Premium, class lists, and summary attendance and behaviour data, are updated from your MIS automatically every night.
